STUDY & REVISION

On the first Monday of the course each student will have a full review and one-to-one tutorial to discuss their revision and homework assignments. The student and teacher will agree a personal plan for the half term period and this will be monitored daily by the SIS teachers.

- Classes of maximum 15 students
- 9 hours of classes which will be communicative with interesting and varied topics
- Additional afternoon classes available for those who need intensive English language tuition or English for Academic purposes

RELAXATION

The Old Exchange is the Teenage Social Centre and the place the students can socialise and relax. It is open during all breaks and lunchtimes and from 3.30pm on the afternoons when there are no excursions.

SOCIAL PROGRAMME

There are three half-day excursions which are compulsory, including:

- The hugely popular Ashcombe Activity Centre which has facilities for raft building, archery, zip wire and paint ball.
- Plymouth for ice-skating or shopping
- Exeter on the last day for a farewell meal and shopping or football
- All costs are included unless stated otherwise on the programme

ACTIVITIES

The programme offers a variety of activities in the afternoons. These include excursions (see below) and sports (golf, football tennis and swimming). There is also a planned walk on the Jurassic Coast, an English Heritage site. There is the opportunity to opt out of these activities for those students who need to do extra study.

EVENINGS

A variety of evening activities are on offer including sports (basketball and badminton), an optional visit to the local cinema, a barbecue night, and some evenings with the host family.

ACCOMMODATION

Students stay with our carefully selected host families who provide the perfect environment to relax in the comfort of a family home. It also gives them the opportunity to practice their English.

- Most students stay in single rooms
- Dinner, bed and breakfast are provided every day with light lunches at weekends
- Most host families are within walking distance of the school but bus tickets are available if required from the school for GBP10 per week.

PRICE: GBP575 (plus registration fee £50)

Included in the price:

- 12 lessons (9 hours) tuition
